PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it is entirely appropriate that all Americans continually re-pledge their faith in the principles and institutions that give lasting strength to our United States; and

WHEREAS, loyalty to our nation in this time of world conflict is necessary if we are to preserve our American Heritage; and

WHEREAS, we often fail to exert the necessary effort for proper observance of patriotic exercises that demonstrate our love of country; and

WHEREAS, the United States Day Committee, composed of many outstanding American citizens, has requested that South Dakota make special observance this year of United States Day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 23, 1954, as in South Dakota and do urge all South Dakotans to evidence their love of country by appropriate meetings and personal actions; and I do further urge that newspapers, radio and television programs give recognition to the day; and do finally urge the people of South Dakota to display our United States Flag as part of the United States Day Observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 16th day of October, 1954.

..... Sigurd Anderson. ....
Governor
